Title:

Administrative Notice
Late Application Records; Reinstatements to Chambers List

Summary:

This Administrative Notice describes how late application records, and applications that that have been struck off the Chambers list will be dealt with at an administrative level.

Direction:

Application struck where application record not provided on time

1. When an application record is not provided to the registry within the time stipulated by the Rules of Court , the application is struck from the Chambers list.

Leave to reinstate application to list, or late file application record

2. Where counsel or a litigant seeks leave to file the application record late or to reinstate an application to the Chambers list that has been struck, a Requisition in the form attached in Appendix A must be completed.

Direction where respondent appears on matter that has been struck

3. Where a respondent attends for an application that has been struck from the Chambers list because the applicant did not file the application record on time, a Requisition in the form attached in Appendix B must be completed if the respondent seeks an order as to costs or other direction.
